

The Lewes Historical Society Lewes Seafaring Days 2009 Application

June 27, 2009

Information & Policies

Lewes is a quaint historic town located in coastal Sussex County, Delaware. Lewes is within easy driving distance of major metropolitan areas. With its wealth of historical sites, museums, unique shops, restaurants and pristine beaches, Lewes is an exciting destination for antiques, art, crafts and decoy buyers.

Lewes Seafaring Days is a fund-raising event for The Lewes Historical Society with FREE admission. Last year, over 1,500 visitors attended the show. Food vendors are encouraged to apply to this event.

There are approximately 60 booths available. Booths are 10' x 20' and are allotted upon confirmation of acceptance. One exhibitor per space is allowed with no subletting. Tables, chairs and protection from the elements (rain & sun) are the responsibility of the exhibitor. Lewes Seafaring Days is RAIN OR SHINE.

Setup begins at 6:00 AM to be completed by 10:00 AM. Vehicles are to be removed from the Complex by 9:00 AM. Nearby parking is available for all dealers. Outside food vendors are prohibited and dealers shall not sell food or drink of any kind. No packing until 4:00 PM. The Historic Complex is nationally recognized for its beauty; please remove all trash from the site when you leave. Tents and tables ONLY may be set up beginning at 4:30 PM the day before the show. NO ANTIQUES, ETC., MAY BE LEFT ON THE PREMISES OVERNIGHT. NO VEHICLES MAY BE LEFT OVERNIGHT. TABLES AND/OR TENTS LEFT ARE LEFT AT YOUR OWN RISK. If you are planning on renting tables, etc., and having them delivered to the Society, please let us know so we can have them placed in a safe location. The Lewes Historical Society is not liable for any loss or damage resulting from any materials left overnight, by attendees, etc. During the show, booths must be staffed at all times.
